Political donations and gifts

All persons who lodge a submission to a development application are required to declare any relevant political donations and/or gifts in accordance with the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979.

Designated Development

Right of appeal

Unless the Independent Planning Commission has held a public hearing, a person who has objected to the development, by making a submission, and who is dissatisfied with any determination of the consent authority to grant development consent, may appeal to the Land and Environment Court. If the Independent Planning Commission holds a public hearing, the Commission's determination of the application is final and not subject to appeal.

Designated and Integrated Development

The proposal is classed as 'designated and integrated development' and requires approval from the following Government Agencies in addition to development consent from City of Newcastle:

- NSW Office of Environment & Heritage (requires an environment protection licence under the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997).
