City of Newcastle is proposing the following:

Road Naming of unnamed lane in New Lambton to Snowball Lane.

This road needs to be named to facilitate addressing and to aid emergency service location and service delivery.

The proposed name has been pre-approved by the NSW Geographical Names Board. Members of the community are invited to view and make comment on the proposed road name.

Please see the below table and location map:

Proposed Road Name	Suburb	Name Origin	Road Extent Description
Snowball Lane	New Lambton	The road is named after Ralph Snowball, a Newcastle-based photographer whose works in the late 19th and early 20th centuries have given historians significant insight into local life at the time. He was also appointed as the first Council Clerk of the former Municipality of New Lambton.	The road starts at Bridges Road near the eastern boundary of Lot 34 Section B DP9670. It extends in a westerly direction for 235m, terminating at the southern corner of Lot A DP343659
