Exhibition

City of Newcastle is proposing the following:

Naming of unnamed public laneway in Mayfield East.

This road needs to be named to facilitate address number allocation and to aid emergency service location and service delivery.

The proposed name has been supported by the NSW Geographical Names Board (GNB).
Members of the community are invited to view and make comment on the proposed road name.

Please see the below table and location map:

Proposed Road Name	Suburb	Name Origin	Road Extent Description
Sinter Lane	Mayfield East	The name reflects the area's history in the steelmaking industry. 'Sinter' describes powdered material, made up of iron ore and other materials, that is used for smelting in the steelmaking process.	The road begins at its intersection with Holt Street and continues to the east for 31 metres, then to the north for 151 metres, for a total of 182 metres before coming to an end.
